
Opposing extreme: oldest date for increasing histories, youngest for decreasing. Above zero: AIC favours the correct direction, or uniform for the constant history (ratio 1, unconnected). Below zero: AIC favours the opposite direction. For ratios above 1, the remaining replicates favour uniform. Ratios 1.5–5: 500 replicates; ratios 1 and 10: 1,000.